 MEET THE SPEAKERS *****

(NOTE: Biographies are normally written by the speakers. I only edit them for clarity and misspellings).

Lisa Foster - Kent WA: Lisa is a Washington native and lifelong stamp collector, is a 25-plus year member of the APS with additional philatelic memberships with the ATA, AAPE, and MCS. She is the current President of Women Exhibitors and has been a WE member since its inception in 2007. She has exhibited on a variety of topics, including The Great American Eclipse, American Postal Machine Co. Flag Cancells, Invalid Postage Use, George Washington and the Salish Sea. Lisa also evaluates local and regional exhibitions as a Council of Northern California Philatelic Society accredited judge.

In 2016 she received the NWFSC Club Member Service Award as a member and Exhibits Chairperson of the Evergreen Stamp Club. In 2017 Lisa received the SEAPEX Distinguished Service Award in recognition of her service as Secretary to the Board of Directors and Exhibits Chairperson during the probationary qualifying period and initial years as a national-level stamp exhibition and WSP of philately show.

In 2018, on television we watched Hawaii's Kilauea volcano erupt and the resulting devastation from the safety of our Pacific Northwest homes. It triggered memories of the 1980 eruption of Mt. St. Helens, renewed concerns regarding our choice of living in a state with five major volcanoes and prompted discussions regarding volcanoes around the world. This presentation will explore some of the many volcanos commemorated on stamps.

Ina Inklebarger - Chehalis WA: Ina is a stamp dealer's wife who enjoys history, geography, people and places, and learning new topics. This makes her a natural to enjoy the philatelic hunt that goes into collecting Hawaiian Town Postmarks. Ina finds them both fun to collect and an exciting challenge, and shares her hobby with great enthusiasm.

Ina is a member of the American Topical Association and the Hawaiian Philatelic Society. Together with her husband, Stephen, she travels the USA promoting Hawaiian Philately in all aspects, and they have become a reliable resource in the specialty of collecting and the study of Hawaiian stamps, covers, and especially, town postmarks. Ina hopes that her power point presentation will likewise inspire you in the collecting of both Hawaii and the town postmarks of your chosen area of philately.

Myron Molnau - Spokane WA: Like many kids, I had a stamp collection in grade school that was put aside during high school. I eventually married my high school sweetheart (we are still married). She encouraged me to pick up the stamps again because my then current hobby was building model boats which made a mess in the house. A librarian at the university was a stamp collector and he introduced me to the American Topical Association Ships on Stamps Unit. I joined the Unit and have been an active member ever since. I have several thousand stamps showing ships. This takes up considerably less space than does the ship models I built. I also have another topical collection of books and printing on stamps.

I have two major country collections, Canada and Belgium. I have always been interested in the exploration of Canada and the Great Lakes Region so that explains the several shelves of Canadian material in my stamp room. I was very active in the ATA being on the Board of Directors and also I was treasurer of ATA for several years. This meant that I met many people around the world and so started my interest in Belgium stamps when we visited Belgium on trips to Europe to visit our son in the Army. During all this time, I also started one of the first web pages for any ATA study unit. I was an officer of the Ships on Stamps Unit for many years and just stepped down after over 48 years holding one office or another. I have membership in several philatelic societies: American Topical Association (Ships on Stamps, Books on Stamps), British North America Philatelic Society (BNAPS), Belgian Philatelic Study Circle of GB, American Philatelic Society, Inland Empire Philatelic Society, Pacific Northwest Postal History Society. I have a nice grouping of Latah County Idaho Postal History as well as a little from Carver County Minnesota.

Richard Sola - Spokane WA: A graduate of the University of California, San Diego and the University of San Diego School of Law, Richard continues to research, write and lecture on the social and urban history of Eastern Washington with a focus on the time period of 1900 to 1940. He is a long-time member of the APS and the Fellowship of Samoa Specialists. A collector of 19th century Philippines and 19th century Samoa, he is also delving into the topical field of labor history in the Intermountain West during the early 20th century. Richard is also a member of the Eastern Washington Historical Society, Westerners International, the Ice Age Floods Institute and the Lewis and Clark Trail Foundation. Recently, he has developed the Spokane Hidden History tour program offered through the City of Spokane Community Centers. Richard is an instructor in regional history for the ACT 2 (Extended Learning for seniors over 50) program of the Spokane Community Colleges. He is a frequent presenter at universities, historical organizations and community groups in the Inland Northwest.
